But You keep sayin, "I want you to go"

My tan is lookin so good now
Finally got that raise at my job
But I know there's bigger things ahead of me
That comes from bein a child of God

So I'm gonna be Your, be Your missionary man

I've been on hold to society
But can I really watch the world go by
Of all those roads that influence me
It's your direction I've got to try

Those times You quietly spoke to me
Those times I've cried for that dying race
My dreams could all become reality
I want to move; with Your faith and grace

REPEAT CHORUS:
